CKT FEST Hilltops

CKT speakers agency

World-class children's literature, right here in our community

The CKT Speakers Agency is bringing world-class children's literature straight to our community with CKTfest Hilltops.

From 5 to 7 May, 2027 four of Australia's top internationally recognised and multi-award-winning authors; Deborah Abela, Jacqueline Harvey, R.A. Spratt, and Kristin Darell, are coming to inspire students from Kindergarten to Year 12, through interactive presentations and creative workshops.

Our goal is simple yet powerful - to bridge the gap for regional students and give our local kids access to the same extraordinary literary opportunities as city schools.

How You & Your Business Can Get Involved

Bringing an event of this scale to our region takes a community effort, and we would love for local businesses, organisations, and community members to partner with us.

- Sponsoring or Donating: Financial support, in-kind donations, or service contributions to help keep this event accessible.
- Spreading the Word: Share this initiative with colleagues, educators, families, and local networks.

Let's Connect!

Whether you'd like to explore sponsorship opportunities, offer support, or simply learn more about the initiative, we'd love to hear from you.
